Ms. Linda P. Joseph
Ms. F. Merline Rodrigues
Co-ordinators, Speaker's Forum

Ms. Lakshmi Salim
HOD
Department of English

The Speaker's Forum, Department of English, in collaboration with IQAC organized a motivational talk on the topic "Envision Your Ideal Vocation" as part of the INSIGHT Programme on 19th September 2020 through Google meet. Ms. Neethu Kamal IPS, SP, CBI in the Ministry of Personnel and Training (DOPT), Govt. of India was the Resource Person.

The event commenced at 4:00 p.m. and saw an active participation of 105 students and faculty from various departments. The resource person addressed all the queries and concerns regarding civil service career by briefing her own personal experience. She also motivated students by stating that woman can achieve her dreams regarding careers with sheer perseverance and determination. The one hour enriching and motivating interactive session came to a close by 5:00 p.m. and received positive reviews from the attendees.

IIC

IIC is an ambitious project of the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Govt. of India aimed at creating an ecosystem that fosters the culture of innovation and creativity across all Higher Education Institutions (HEIs). The Institution Innovation Cell of Carmel College started functioning during 2020-'21 to encourage idea generation and innovation from aspiring students and promote them to create start-ups and entrepreneurial ventures. Students are given the exclusive opportunity to partake in various innovation-related initiatives and competitions chartered by MHRD, meet and interact with experts in the field, get mentored by industry professionals and procure the means to actualize a potential idea.

Preamble

CC 872589

WHEREAS, SJC and CCM have many areas of common interest in arts, science and commerce, considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research.

NOW THEREFORE, SJC and CCM have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

Objective

Both Institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

The two institutions shall seek to promote Faculty/Scientist/Staff Exchanges

- The exchange of faculty to the mutual benefit of both institutions,
- Collaboration in teaching, research and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest,
- The exchange of academic materials and publications,
- Conducting lectures,
- Undertaking joint research,
- Attachment of staff for purposes of curriculum development and review, attendance of courses, upgrading of teaching and research skills,
- Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions,
- Co-supervising post-graduate students,
- Conducting study tours and joint consultancy work.

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting forth detailed arrangements for collaboration will be agreed. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment or such exchange, will be worked out between the institutes.

Student Exchange

SJC and CCM agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- His/her programme/course of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- SJC and CCM agree to provide suitable accommodation for student exchange.
- To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

Other Areas:

- to exchange information on research and educational programs,
- to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs,
- to jointly organize short-term continuing education programs on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to organize jointly seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to propose and engage jointly in research or training programs sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research,
- to use laboratory facilities in specific cases for a limited period,
- to permit students, staff and faculty members to use library facility.

SJC and CCM agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be determined separately and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation.

Coordination

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching/research faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of SJC, and a programme coordinator from the side of CCM, will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

Ownership of any intellectual property (including but not limited to confidential information, know-how, patents, copyrights, design rights, rights relating to computer software, and any other industrial or intellectual property rights) developed jointly during the course of this MOU shall be vested in both institutes to this Memorandum.

Validity

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of Two years commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of Three months in advance to the other institution. Once terminated, neither SJC and CCM will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, SJC and CCM will ensure that the provisions of this Memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes. Participating faculties, staff and students involved in any activities under this Memorandum must adhere to the law of the host countries and rules and regulations of the institutions. Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any legal relationship between the institutes. This Memorandum is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration. In case, there be a dispute relating to any aspect of academic cooperation, Principal, SJC and CCM will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect, and shared responsibility.

SJC and CCM welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

Preamble

CC 872589

WHEREAS, SJC and CCM have many areas of common interest in arts, science and commerce, considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research.

NOW THEREFORE, SJC and CCM have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

Objective

Both Institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

The two institutions shall seek to promote Faculty/Scientist/Staff Exchanges

- The exchange of faculty to the mutual benefit of both institutions,
- Collaboration in teaching, research and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest,
- The exchange of academic materials and publications,
- Conducting lectures,
- Undertaking joint research,
- Attachment of staff for purposes of curriculum development and review, attendance of courses, upgrading of teaching and research skills,
- Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions,
- Co-supervising post-graduate students,
- Conducting study tours and joint consultancy work.

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting forth detailed arrangements for collaboration will be agreed. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment or such exchange, will be worked out between the institutes.

Student Exchange

SJC and CCM agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- His/her programme/course of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- SJC and CCM agree to provide suitable accommodation for student exchange.
- To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

Other Areas:

- to exchange information on research and educational programs,
- to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs,
- to jointly organize short-term continuing education programs on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to organize jointly seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to propose and engage jointly in research or training programs sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research,
- to use laboratory facilities in specific cases for a limited period,
- to permit students, staff and faculty members to use library facility.

SJC and CCM agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be determined separately and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation.

Coordination

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching/research faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of SJC, and a programme coordinator from the side of CCM, will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

Ownership of any intellectual property (including but not limited to confidential information, know-how, patents, copyrights, design rights, rights relating to computer software, and any other industrial or intellectual property rights) developed jointly during the course of this MOU shall be vested in both institutes to this Memorandum.

Validity

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of Two years commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of Three months in advance to the other institution. Once terminated, neither SJC and CCM will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, SJC and CCM will ensure that the provisions of this Memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes. Participating faculties, staff and students involved in any activities under this Memorandum must adhere to the law of the host countries and rules and regulations of the institutions. Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any legal relationship between the institutes. This Memorandum is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration. In case, there be a dispute relating to any aspect of academic cooperation, Principal, SJC and CCM will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect, and shared responsibility.

SJC and CCM welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

ASAP 2015-2020

Additional Skill Acquisition Programme (ASAP) was launched in 2012, under the Government of Kerala's Higher Education Department. It has a legacy of 8 years in the domain of skill development. ASAP has till date trained over two lakh students in Higher Secondary schools, Undergraduate colleges and Technical Education institutions of the State of Kerala.

ASAP skill classes are different from the regular academic pedagogy offered in schools and colleges. ASAP offers training in 85 National Skill Qualification Framework (NSQF) aligned skill courses in 23 skill sectors. The 150 hours mandatory internship is a hallmark of ASAP's skill training. ASAP's novel intervention, Advanced Skill Development Centres (ASDCs) provides advanced futuristic skill courses. The 16 Community Skill Parks (CSPs) established in all districts is a one stop destination for skill development with a purview to encourage community skilling keeping in mind the community aspirations. ASAP continues to put efforts in translating the requirements of the industry into skill programmes that will raise the standard of employability of the Kerala youth.

There are 9 Skill Development Centers (SDC) under Thrissur Districts headed by the District Programme Manager. The SDCs are headed by Programme Managers and supported by Programme Executives. They are being trained for their Foundation Module in their parent organizations and their Skill Classes are being conducted in SDC on all working days/ Saturdays/Sundays/ Public holidays. Foundation module is handled by the Skill Development Executives (SDEs) employed by ASAP and the Skill training is provided by NSDC certified trainers empanelled by the ASAP with Training Service Providers (TSPs). At the end of the training programme, students have to undergo an assessment that evaluates their proficiency and knowledge on the subject. Internal evaluations are carried out at various stages of class progression. ASAP coordinates with SSC and NSDC to conduct the assessment final.

Objective of ASAP's foundation module:

(i) This course intends to help learners overcome their inhibitions in using the English language, to identify their strengths and develop abilities and aptitudes that are essential for successful social interaction and employability. It introduces students to some of the key aspects of Personal Skills, alternatively known as Life Skills.

(ii) Provide the means for an individual to be resourceful and positive while taking on life's vicissitudes.

(iii) Development of one's personality by being aware of the self, connecting with others, reflecting on the abstract and the concrete, leading and generating change, and staying rooted in time-tested values and principles is being aimed at.

(iv) To enhance the employability and maximize the potential of the students by introducing those to the principles that underlay personal and professional success, and help them acquire the skills needed to apply these principles in their lives and careers

Course outcome:

After the completion of the course the student will be able to:

- Define and Identify different life skills required in personal and professional life.
- Learn the basics of teamwork and leadership
- Develop an awareness of the self and apply well-defined techniques to cope with emotions and stress.
- Develop interpersonal skill, problem solving skill, presentation skill, communication skills and Enhance creativity skills.
- Explain the basic mechanics of effective communication and demonstrate these through presentations
- Learn to apply appropriate thinking and problem-solving techniques to solve new problems.

The ASAP activities (2015-2020) of Carmel College Mala Thrissur were conducted effectively and efficiently. 5 batches of students completed the regular course and two batches of summer skill schools and got the certificate of British Council. An awareness class provided to all the regular stream students followed by selection of the participants by personal interview.
