QUAIL FARMING (14/09/2021)

The quail farming project was undertaken by the Department of Zoology in association with Life Club of Carmel College Mala. 16 students were participated. 100 quails from the college farm were sold along with its nest to a woman named Julie. The project was graced by the presence of the Principal, Dr. Sr. Licy A.D. Julie was also given guidance as to how to start her own quail farming venture. It was a wonderful experience and practice for future endeavors to the students as well as for the college community.

ENERGY AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

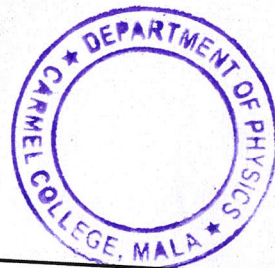

Department of Physics

December 14th-19th 2020

CARMEL COLLEGE MALA

Affiliated to the University of Calicut
Re-Accredited by NAAC with A Grade (Third Cycle)

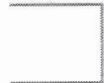

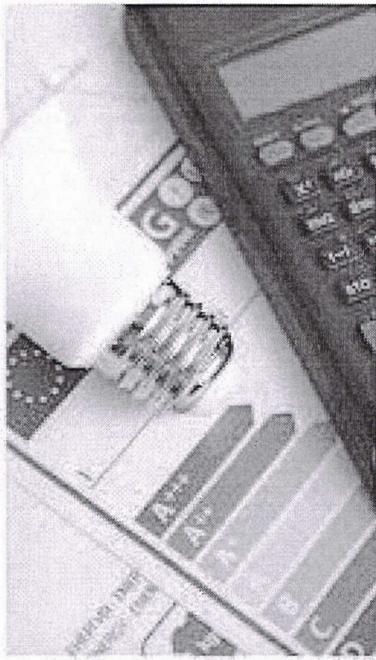

Detailed Report on Energy Conservation Awareness Campaign

An energy conservation awareness campaign was conducted as part of the Energy Awareness week from 14th to 19th December, 2020. Five Kudumbasree Units from various parts of the district of Kerala were chosen for the campaign in which over 47 families took part. They were made aware of the energy crisis that we are facing now and the crisis that will take place in the future years. They were taught the importance of energy conservation in small scale such as in their homes and also enlightened them on the use of renewable sources of energy.
