ENTREPRENEURSHIP SKILLSET PROGRAMME: MAKING ECO-FRIENDLY PAPER PENS IN ASSOCIATION WITH CAREER GUIDANCE AND PLACEMENT CELL (15-03-2021)

The Department of English in association with Career Guidance and Placement Cell organized an “Entrepreneurship Skillset Programme: Making Eco-Friendly Paper Pens” exclusively for the students of the Department of English as part of the Entrepreneurship Skills Development of the Department.

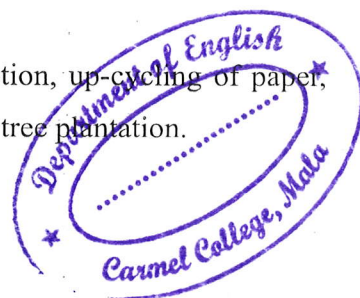

Making eco-friendly paper pens add one’s social responsibility. Plastic waste reduction is the greatest advantage of this type of pens, though plastic refills are used. The raw materials include old newspaper covered by new colour craft papers. Paper pens carry seeds too. So once a pen is used up, sapling will sprout from seed, if it is planted into the soil.

Dr. Pretty John P., HOD of English, Career Guidance and Placement cell Co-ordinator and IIC Start-up Activity Co-ordinator gave an introduction to the “Entrepreneurship Skillset Programme: Making Eco-Friendly Paper Pens.” Amrithalakshmi K.M. of II B.A. Functional English trained her peers of the Department of English regarding the advantages of using ecofriendly paper pens and how to make them. It was decided that they would give eco-friendly paper pens to the outgoing students of III B.A. Functional English and II M.A. English as a token of love and appreciation to them along with ADIEU Cards made by them. Though the former students of the Department of English have made and sold eco-friendly paper pens earlier, eco-friendly products have not been named officially yet. It was decided to name the eco-friendly products made by the students of the Department of English as LITWORLD.

Eco-friendly paper pens offer students not only plastic waste reduction, up-cycling of paper, women empowerment and but also help in creating inclusive atmosphere and tree plantation.

Organized by the Department of English and ALUMNAE Association (16-06-2020)

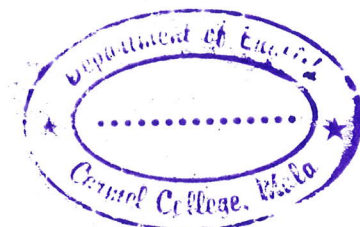

By Dr. Arunlal K. (Arunlal Mokeri), Writer, Translator and Assistant Professor of English & Research Guide, Government College, Mokeri

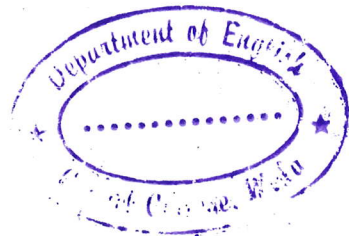

On 16th June 2020, the Department of English and ALUMNAE Association jointly organized an International Webinar on “Pandemics, Cultural Lock Downs and Literature.” As part of the Litworld Webinar Series. He has worked with the International Shakespearean Desk, Dublin, on Localizing Shakespeare. There were participants from different states of India and abroad.

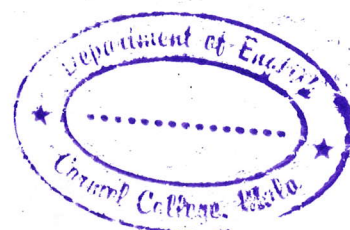

Quoting a line from Albert Camus’s 1947 allegorical novel, The Plague: “No longer were there individual destinies; only a collective destiny, made of plague and emotions shared by all.” There is no pandemic without language and we are globally united by a pandemic COVID. Everyone is talking about social distancing, community spread, quarantine and isolation, break the chain, pandemics, lock downs and the like. These terms have become part and parcel of our lives just like mask and sanitizers. The webinar gave insights into the relationship between different pandemics and cultural lock downs and their impact on Literature.

REPORT ON

Webinar on “Post-Dramatic Performance”

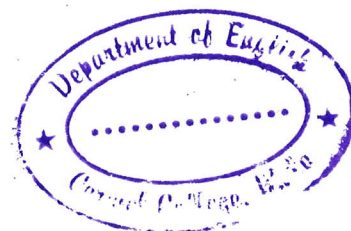

Organized by the Department of English and ALUMNAE Association (17-06-2020)

By Prof. Vinod V. Narayanan, Theatre and Film Artist, Theatre Trainer and Creative Director of Dharsini School of Performing Arts and Assistant Professor and Former HOD, School of Drama and Fine Arts, Thrissur

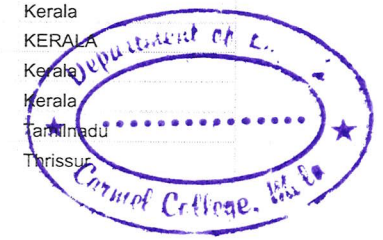

On 17th June 2020, the Department of English and ALUMNAE Association jointly organized an International Webinar on “Post-Dramatic Performance” as part of the Litworld Webinar Series. Prof. Vinod V. Narayanan, Theatre and Film Artist, Theatre Trainer and Creative Director of Dharsini School of Performing Arts and Assistant Professor and Former HOD, School of Drama and Fine Arts, Thrissur was the Resource Person. He has been a Fulbright Scholar at the University of Wisconsin, USA. There were participants from different states of India and abroad for the webinar.

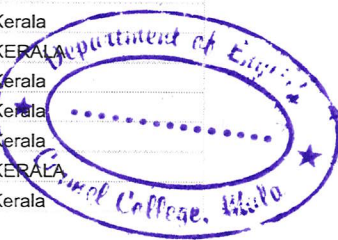

The Resource Person threw light on postdramatic performance. He opined that probably no critical term since the Theatre of the Absurd has proven as attractive to theatre theorists as postdramatic theatre, introduced by Hans-Theis Lehmann. Quite often we use theatre and drama as synonyms forgetting theatre scholars’s opinion that drama refers to the literary text and its history, and theatre to the realization of that text on the stage which ultimately paves way for the difference between literary text and performance text. He added that postdramatic theatre with its major focus on performance as text thus challenges classical elements of drama, including the centrality of plot and character. The webinar gave a virtual real theatrical experience to the participants.

There were participants from different states of India for the webinar.

The Resource Person highlighted that reading is both art and pleasure especially in the age of pandemics and she substantiated her thought by taking examples from literatures of the world. Some still think that reading books seems to be a dying art form in the midst of today’s dominant pleasurable activities which include watching movies, web series, games in OTT platforms, satellite television, YouTube and the like. But still some find reading as both pleasurable activity and art. The webinar highlighted the significance of reading as a pleasurable artistic experience.
