INTER-DEPARTMENTAL FLASH FICTION WRITING COMPETITION

by the Writer's Forum, Department of English (27-07-2022)

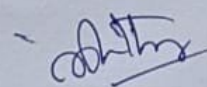

The Writer's Forum, Department of English organized an inter-departmental flash fiction writing competition on 27th July 2022.

Flash fiction compresses an entire story into the space of a few paragraphs. There is no defined word count for flash fiction, but some commonly used word limits in flash fiction range from just six words on the short end to around thousand words on the longer end. There were 26 participants. Writing flash fiction stories is a great way to sharpen one's writing skills.

Workshop on “Bilingual Poetry Reading and Discussion on Creativity and its Methodologies” (17-03-2023)

The Workshop on “Bilingual Poetry Reading and Discussion on Creativity and its Methodologies” was held on 17th March 2023. The Resource Person was Dr. Syam Sudhakar, Bilingual Writer in English and Malayalam and Assistant Professor and Research Guide, Department of English, St. Thomas College (Autonomous), Thrissur. The Workshop was followed by poetry reading by students.

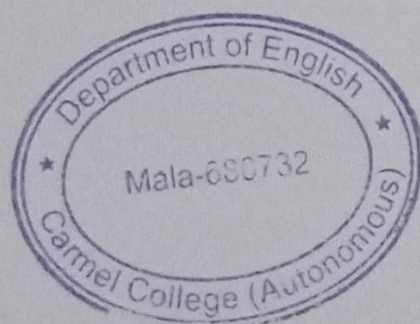

Creative writing is writing, either fictional or non-fictional, which displays the author’s imagination and original ideas. It is a manifestation of one’s thought process and ideation, and successful conversion of those ideas into words. However, to achieve any of this it is important to be observant of one’s surroundings and ponder over them. The Workshop offered participants with an overview of the writing process, elements of close reading and academic writing, then move into research methodology and method through critical thinking. Three rhetorical modes will guide research and self-expression: Definition, Persuasion, and First-Person Narration. With a strong focus on self-knowledge and personal writing style, this will be an inclusive environment for any student wanting to strengthen their academic writing, creative writing, critical thinking, and research skills.

The Workshop aimed to acquaint students with the techniques and methods of successful reading of poetry, creative writing and research and to equip them with the same

The screening of the films followed by the discussion aimed to sensitize students to different human rights which include right to vote, right to education, rights of elderly persons, right to dignity, right to freedom of expression and other human rights violations which include crimes against women and the underprivileged. The Adventures of Tom Sawyer movie includes most of the sequences familiar to the reader of the book, including the fence-whitewashing episode; a wild raft ride down the Mississippi River; Tom and Hucklieberry Finn's attendance at their own funeral, after the boys, who were enjoying an adventure on a remote island, are presumed dead; the murder trial of local drunkard Muff Potter; and Tom and Becky Thatcher's flight through a cave as they try to escape Injun Joe, who is revealed to be the real killer. The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn movie is based on a classic novel by Twain of the same title. It is about a young boy who struggles to save and free himself from captivity, responsibility, and social injustice. Along his river to freedom, he aids and befriends a runaway slave named Jim. The two travel down the Mississippi, hoping to reach Cairo successfully. However, along the way they run into many obstacles that interrupt their journey. By solving these difficult tasks, they learn life lessons important to survival.

Twain's major themes in these two novels are the stupidity and faults of the society in which Huck and Tom live. There is cruelty, greed, murder, trickery, hypocrisy, racism, and a general lack of morality. All of these human failings are seen through the characters and the adventures they experience in both book and reels. These movies portray the challenging social and moral questions posed by the novel's engagement with slavery.

The screening of these 2 movies aimed to sensitize students to different human rights which include right to education, rights of elderly persons, right to dignity, right to freedom of expression and other human rights violations. Besides, the students are inspired from the "Return to Nature" message by Twain given in these works which is clearly visible. A comparative analysis of the reel and the real in the treatment of nature in these works is clearly visible.

The discussion of students after the screening of the movie, gives insights into several gender inequalities in Enola Holmes movie, which are inequality in getting the right to vote; violence, oppression, and sexual harassment of women; women must obey all the orders of men; freedom of expression is limited by societal standards as followed in the Victorian society. The film represents the feminist values through the character of Enola, such as independence, intellectual, showing freedom of choice, gender equality, and right to privacy.

The screening of the film followed by the discussion aimed to sensitize students to different human rights which include right to vote, right to education, rights of elderly persons, right to dignity, right to freedom of expression and other human rights violations which include crimes against women and the underprivileged.

Report on PREMCHAND JAYANTHI

Report

Remembering the writers and their contribution to a language is important for the survival and growth of a particular language. In Indian context the Hindi language which is a lingua franca of majority of people in northern parts of India and Premchand was one of the first authors who wrote about caste hierarchies and the plights of women and labourers in the society of late 1880s. Department of Hindi celebrated this year's 'Premchand Jayanthi' on 19/08/2022 with a talk on Premchand's story 'Idgah' by Chinchu Ramachandran, Research Scholar, from SSUS kalady. All students participated in the lecture and also shared their views on the topic.

Outcome

Premchand written on the topic of oppression in the society along with cast hierarchy prevailed in the Indian society. In the contemporary society both issues of oppression of women and cast hierarchies are visible but in a more hidden manner. So, remembering the works of Premchand is an eyeopener for the students. Also, the lecture was educative for a student of literature. Thus, it will enhance their interest on the topic and help them to perform well in their studies.
