

CARMEL COLLEGE LIBRARY REPORT

2023-2024

INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME (April 17th to 6th May 2023)

Four students from Rajagiri College undertook One month internship program at Carmel College Library to gain insights into its operations. The purpose of their internship was to understand the inner workings of the library, including aspects such as Cataloguing, circulation, and overall management. Over the course of the program, they successfully achieved their goals by delving into various tasks. They learned the intricacies of purchasing books, recording details in the stock register, and organizing books on shelves. The experience proved to be invaluable, providing them with practical knowledge and skills crucial for library management. Overall, the internship at Carmel College Library was a beneficial and enriching opportunity for the Rajagiri

College students, offering them a hands-on understanding of library procedures and practices.

BOOK FAIR

The library at Carmel College Library Mala organized a vibrant Book Fair on November 2nd, running from 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM. The event was inaugurated by our esteemed Principal, Dr. SR Seena, infusing a sense of significance into the day. Renowned publishers like Minerva and New Age International actively took part in the fair, adding to a diverse and enriching collection of books. It was held in the Students' Corner. The event gave teachers and students a lively space to explore books. The atmosphere was full of enthusiasm and enjoyment, with everyone actively checking out the many books on display. It wasn't just a successful event but also helped participants understand the importance of books and reading better. This initiative sparked a culture of literacy in the school, promoting intellectual growth and a greater love for reading.

CARMEL COLLEGE LIBRARY VISIT FOR SCHOOL STUDENTS

Students from Soccorso School & St. Antony's HSS Mala visited Carmel College Library as part of their project with the primary purpose of reading books. During their visit, the students immersed themselves in the rich collection of literature available at the library, exploring various genres and subjects relevant to their project. The library provided an environment for research and study, allowing the students to access a diverse range of resources to enhance their project work. The visit not only facilitated their academic endeavors but also encouraged a love for reading and research. Overall, the collaboration between Soccorso School & St. Antony's HSS Mala and Carmel College Library served as a positive and enriching experience for the students, promoting a culture of learning and exploration.
