TALK ON

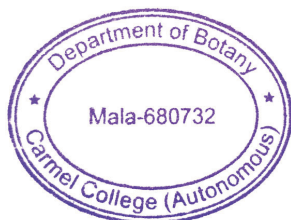

ROLE OF ENGLISH COMMUNICATION SKILLS FOR DAY TO DAY LIFE

On 04/03/2024, a talk was conducted at Carmel College (Autonomous) Mala, focusing on the significance of English communication skills in daily life. The aim was to enlighten students about the pivotal role English plays in their personal and professional lives. The resource person was Dr. Anu Antony, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Carmel College Mala. Dr. Geo Joseph, Coordinator, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany, Carmel College Mala welcomed the gathering. A total of fifty-two students participated in the talk. Ms Arya Gopi student coordinator delivered the vote of thanks.

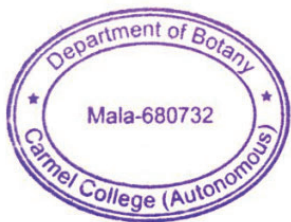

Conclusion: In conclusion, the conducted talk effectively highlighted the indispensable role of English communication skills in day-to-day life. By imparting valuable insights and fostering a proactive approach toward skill development, the session contributed to equipping college students with the necessary tools for success in an increasingly interconnected world. It is imperative for students to recognize English proficiency as a valuable asset and invest efforts in honing their communication skills to excel personally and professionally.

Outcome:

The talk received a positive response from the students, with active participation and insightful inquiries throughout the session. Feedback surveys indicated an increased awareness of the importance of English communication skills and a willingness to improve proficiency levels. Several students expressed their intent to enroll in additional language courses or participate in language exchange programs to enhance their English skills further. Moreover, many acknowledged the need to incorporate English learning into their daily routines through activities such as reading English literature, watching English movies, and engaging in English conversations.

THE READING DAY PLEDGE

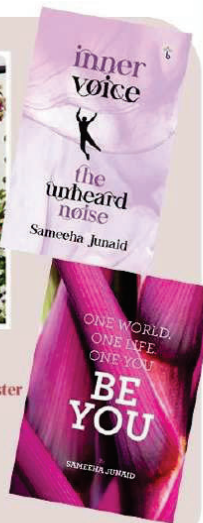

Today I stand and pledge with full faith of my ability to grow through reading and discussions. I pledge to promote the development of my country, Bharat, through judicious reading of books, as well as digital reading, and through right action. I shall read books and practice digital reading, for knowledge as well as technological empowerment. I shall shine the light of knowledge gained, to solve the problems I face as well the challenges that affect my country. I realize that today we face multiple challenges. Be it corruption, substance abuse, or environmental problems, I shall make reading a habit and be a solution to these challenges. I shall ensure best compliance to the legal framework of my country and shall strive for a secure and secular atmosphere. I shall strive to raise high, the value of knowledge, and the pride of my country with my thoughts, words and deeds.

“One World: Many Stories”

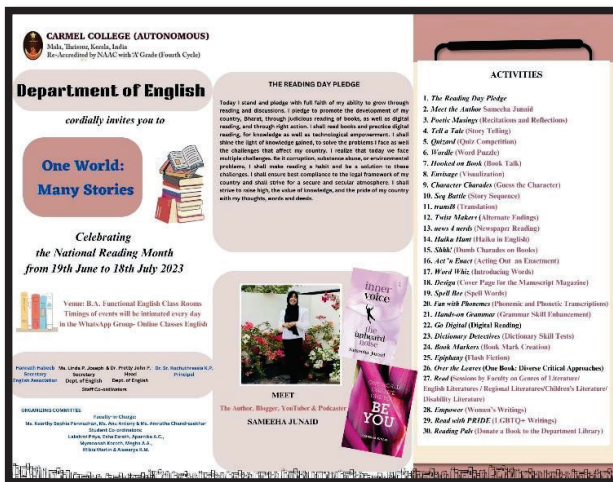

Reading Month Celebrations

(19 June –18 July 2023)

REPORT

19th June is celebrated as the National Reading Day in India to honour P.N. Panicker, the father of the Library Movement. Started as a Reading Day Celebration on June 19, 1996, it has become a mass movement to promote the culture of reading. The Ministry of Education of Kerala also observes Vayana Varam Reading Week for the week between the 19th to 25th of June. In addition, Reading Month is celebrated from 19th June to 18th July.

The event “One World: Many Stories” organized by the Department of English was a vibrant celebration of literature and storytelling held as part of the Reading Month festivities from June 19 to July 18, 2023. The Reading Month started with the Reading Pledge taken by the students and faculty. With a diverse range of activities, participants engaged in various literary pursuits aimed at fostering a love for reading and creative expression.

The event “One World: Many Stories” featured Book Reviews, Poetic Musings (Recitation and Reflections), Tell-a-Tale (Story Telling), Quizard (Quiz Competition), Wordle (Word Puzzle), Hooked-on-Book (Book Talk), Envisage (Visualization), Character Charades (Guess the Character), Seq Battle (Story Sequence), transl8 (Translation), Twist Makers (Alternate Endings), News 4 Nerds (Newspaper Reading), Haiku Hunt (Haiku in English), Shhh! (Dumb Charades on Books), Act-n-Enact (Acting Out an Enactment) and Word Whiz (Introducing Words)

Book reviews provided insightful reflections on literary works, while poetic musings allowed for the exploration of emotions through recitation and reflection. Storytelling sessions, quizzes, word puzzles, and book talks encouraged active participation and critical thinking skills. Moreover, activities such as visualizations, character charades, story sequencing, and crafting alternate endings sparked imagination and creativity among participants. Translation exercises and word introductions promoted linguistic diversity and cultural understanding. Additionally, newspaper reading sessions and haiku composition offered opportunities for reflection on current events and concise expression of ideas. Through activities like dumb charades related to books, acting enactments, and word games, participants engaged in playful interactions, fostering a sense of camaraderie and community.

Overall, “One World: Many Stories” provided a platform for participants to explore the vast world of literature, enhance their reading comprehension, creative writing, critical analysis, and linguistic skills, while fostering a love for storytelling and lifelong learning.

The Enactment of the Musical Play

CINDERELLA: A RETELLING (22-08-2023)

REPORT

The Department of English, under the auspices of Litworld Creations, staged a musical play, Cinderella: A Retelling, an adaptation of the classic fairy tale Cinderella, on August 22 2023, at 2:00 p.m. in the college auditorium. The play was revised to better suit the sensibilities of today's audience, and Cinderella in particular was reimagined as a young representative of the contemporary generation.

The Holy Child ICSE School, Snehagiri Principal, Dr. Sr. Lijo CMC (former Principal, Carmel College, Mala), the faculty and students of the school, as well as the staff and students of St. Antony's Higher Secondary School, Mala, attended the theatrical performance, which was presented for the entire campus. Family and friends of the students also bore witness to the play being staged.

Students of the Department have been divided into groups and assigned duties including stage arrangements, makeup and costume, light and sound, and dubbing, under the supervision of the faculty of the Department. Ms. Linda P. Joseph served as director and choreographer, and Ms. Keerthy Sophiya Ponnachan was the casting director of the play. The play received rave reviews from the audience.

The event is uploaded in the Department YouTube Channel EpicureanZ with the link: <https://youtu.be/edpTuVe5WWw>

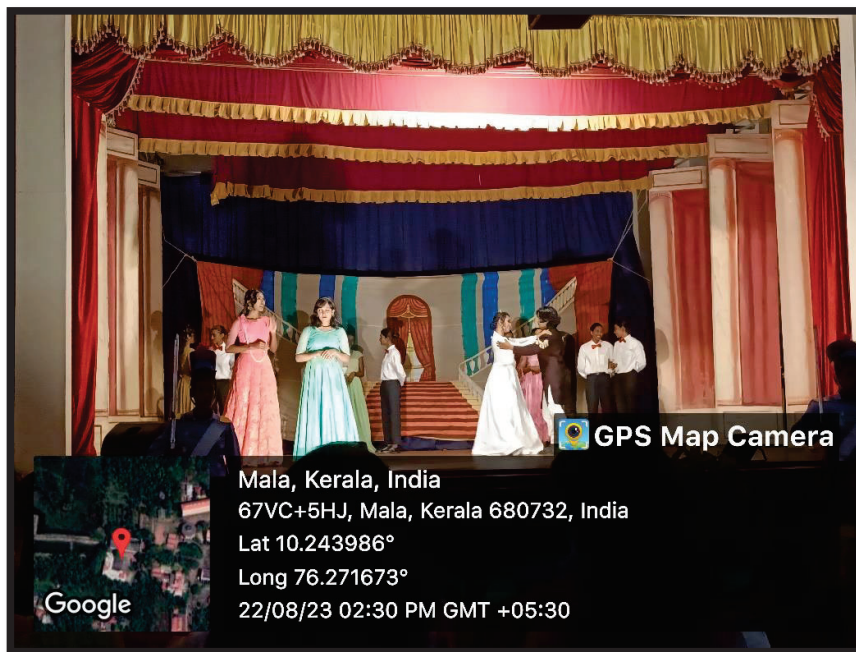

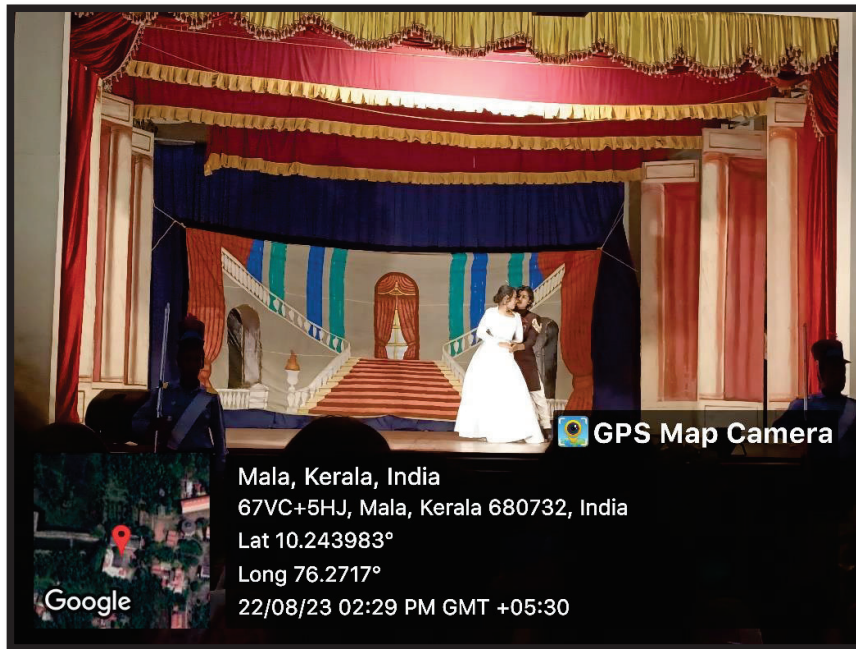

Producers: LitWorld Creations, Department of English, Carmel College (Autonomous), Mala
Director & Choreographer: Linda P. Joseph — Casting Director: Keerthy Sophiya Ponnachan — Dubbing & Recording: Pretty John, Keerthy Sophiya Ponnachan, Linda P. Joseph, Mibia Martin, Mymoonah Koroth, Aiswarya K.M., Lakshmi Priya — Recording Studio: VFX Lab, Carmel College — Art: Afra Sherif, Neeraja, Hannath — Stage: Sifna Xavier, Annliya Shaijan, Ansa Maria, Noufira, Aparnika, Shahanas, Sona, Bhavya, Nandana V.S., Nandana T.A. — Light & Sound: Anu Antony, Jaan Mariat, Gayathri, Divyasree, Sahala, Gayathri — Costume Design: Amrutha Chandrasekhar, Athira Das, Praveena, Fida, Nandana V., Anusha, Vafa, Esha Esarath, Anandalakshmi, Rahana Raj — Promotion: English Association & EpicureanZ YouTube Channel — Cast: Mibia Martin, Mymoonah Koroth, Megha T.P., Megha A.A., Anamika E.A., Hannath Habeeb, Thasneem, Gouri, Anna Rose, Krishnapriya, Gouri, Anjana, Apsara, Maneesha & Lagisha

Through this theatrical production, students were actively involved in various aspects of stage management, makeup, costume design, lighting, sound, and dubbing, fostering their leadership, communication, and teamwork skills. The inclusive nature of the event encouraged participation from diverse backgrounds, promoting values of collaboration and mutual respect. Moreover, the experience provided valuable insights into the world of performing arts, offering students a glimpse into potential career paths in theater and entertainment. It also emphasized the importance of experiential and participative learning, allowing students to apply theoretical knowledge in a practical setting. Overall, the event served as a platform for holistic development, nurturing students' creativity, confidence, and cultural appreciation while equipping them with valuable employability skills for their future endeavors in the arts and beyond.

READING COMPETITION REPORT 2023-24

In today's digital age, reading encompasses not only traditional print media but also electronic format such as e- books, and online articles. The ability to critically evaluate and navigate digital texts is increasingly important in an information-rich world. Reading is a powerful tool for personal enrichment, education, enjoyment, and cultivating a habit of reading is beneficial for individuals of all ages and backgrounds. The department of Hindi & Language club conducted a Book reading competition on 8th August 2023.

OUTCOME

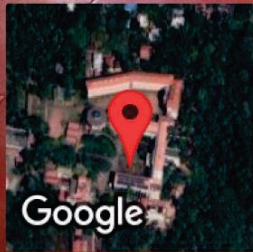

Reading competition helped students a focus for their reading. Encourages students to enjoy reading and read more books. It offers incentives for reluctant readers. It helps to promote literacy, foster a love of reading, and build a sense of community around shared literacy interests. Many students actively participated for the same.

VERBAL ADVANTAGE: ELEVATING STUDENT COMMUNICATION SKILL

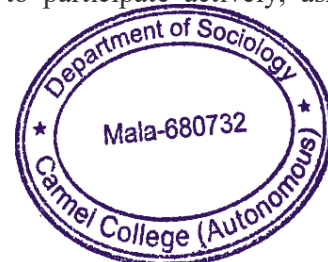

Department Of Sociology 2023-24

Department of sociology organized a talk on the topic “Verbal Advantage: Elevating Student Communication Skill” on March 5 at 10:30 AM, at the audio visual room. The resource person of the programme was Sini A D, Consultant psychologist, Jeevani Counsilor Thrissur. The talk commenced with an introduction to the significance of language and communication skills in both personal and professional spheres. Sini emphasized how effective communication is crucial for success in academic pursuits, career advancement, and building meaningful relationships. Throughout the session, Sini delved into various facets of communication, including verbal and non-verbal communication, active listening, and empathy. She highlighted the importance of clarity, coherence, and conciseness in conveying ideas effectively. Additionally, she discussed the impact of body language, gestures, and facial expressions on communication dynamics. 33 students participated and the talk ended at 12 PM.

Outcome:

1. It provided valuable insights, practical tips, and inspiration to enhance their communication abilities.
2. The event concluded with a sense of empowerment and enthusiasm among the participants, eager to apply the newfound knowledge and skills in their academic and personal lives.
3. The interactive nature of the session allowed students to participate actively, ask questions, and share their experiences.
