Workshop on

“The Elemental Aspects of Research in English Literature and Language”

by

Dr. C.G. Shyamala, Assistant Professor and Research Guide, Mercy College, Palakkad (22.01.2020)

On 22nd January 2020, the Department of English organized a Workshop on “The Elemental Aspects of Research in English Literature and Language.” Dr. C.G. Shyamala, Assistant Professor and Research Guide, PG Department of English and Research Centre for Comparative Studies, Mercy College, Palakkad was the resource person. Her areas of interest include Gender Studies-Masculinities and Femininities, Research Methodology, Literary Theory and Criticism, British Literature- Post-1940 Literature and Cultural Studies.

Dr. C.G. Shyamala stated that literature as study, is divided into two options. The first one is the study of literature as a cultural product for whose interpretation aspects outside the literary work — historical, social, critical, biographical data — must be accounted for. The other is the stylistics option, dealing with the analysis of literary texts by examining their language. The second general purpose is the recent widespread use of literature as a resource for the teaching of the English language. She focused on the dissertation design, qualitative and quantitative data collection methods and general research framework based on the 8th Edition of MLA Handbook of Research Methodology. The participants were keen to do the exercises related to in-text citations and bibliography which would help them to develop a research attitude in moulding their careers.
