

Employers' Feedback on Curriculum 2016-2017

Anet Issay
Principal
Carmel College
Mala

Analysis of Employers' Feedback Analysis

2016-2017

The survey conducted among the employers has revealed several aspects which proved seminal in assessing the growth of the institution.

The majority of employers agree that the syllabus studied by their employees is need-based. Around 81.05% of the employers respond that the curriculum has imparted adequate subject knowledge in their area. The employers are highly satisfied with the general communication skills of the employee and 86.25% of respondents have rated the parameter as excellent. Around 82.75% of the respondents feel that the curriculum grooms industry competency and requisite skills in the employee. 81% of the employers consider the curriculum studied by their employees as excellent and relevant to equip students for higher education and employment. About 91.02% of responses have revealed that the employers find the curriculum as productive in promoting innovative thinking in their employees. Most of the respondents (89%) have opined that the curriculum is effective in equipping one to cope with workplace challenges. 92.51% of respondents have rated the parameter on the curriculum assuring a balanced weightage to theoretical and practical aspects as excellent, 6.32% as very good and 0.35% as good. Around 96.37% of the respondents have a very good impression of the curriculum's scope for experiential learning and research. Around 83.78% of the employers are highly satisfied with the competency of the curriculum in moulding social responsibilities in students.

Sushree
Principal
Carmel College
Mala