Executive Summary

During the Academic Audit of 2015-16, the panel of external experts undertook an exhaustive analysis of each department's strengths, weakness and opportunities on the basis of documents submitted. The core team remarked positively on the overall performance and dedication of the faculty of each department and appreciated the requisite availability of physical facilities. Based on the Academic Audit report by the panel, the Committee Members of IQAC have consolidated the suggestions given by them.

They are as follows:

- Necessary steps to be taken to fill up the vacant faculty positions in many departments
- Initiate process for the starting of new UG and PG Programmes in the next academic year
- More certificate courses are to be introduced
- More lectures/seminars/workshops/ training programmes are required to be organized by each department
- Faculty exchange programmes are to be conducted
- Special attention and guidance should be given to students for the preparation of NET/JRF, Civil Service Coaching and similar competitive examinations
- Focus should be given to productive mentor –mentee interactions and the Principal should see to that at least an hour must be incorporated for Mentor-Mentee interaction in the academic calendar of each department.
- Innovative practices are to be given special attention.
- Wi-Fi in the whole campus

- The Management should sponsor faculty to participate or present papers in conferences / workshops / seminars in India and abroad.
- Engagement in more extension activities by each department
- Introduce more eco-friendly projects
- Update the college website with professional help to showcase the activities of college
