Executive Summary

Academic audit has been introduced as a quality sustenance measure and all the departments are mandated to submit a self-study report for detailed evaluation and review by a panel of expert experts. The audit panel expressed general satisfaction with the functioning of each department and remarked on areas, particular research, to be invested with more attention. After going through the Academic Audit report by the panel, the Committee Members of IQAC have consolidated the suggestions given by them. They are as follows:

- More programmes are to be organized to improve soft skills and life skills of students to make them knowledgeable and employable
- Organize more national and international seminars/conferences
- Faculty and student exchange programmes with other institutions are to be arranged
- More MoU-s with industries and research centres
- More activities that promote community development with focus on inculcating social responsibility among students can be organized
- Full-time career guidance and placement officer to be appointed
- Waste Water Recycling Project to be implemented
- Necessary steps should be taken to fill the permanent faculty vacancies
- More wellness programmes on yoga, health and hygiene are to be organized

- More attention to be given in maintaining department-wise database for student progression to higher studies and jobs
- Organization of more programmes related to entrepreneurship skills by all departments in association with Career Guidance Cell
- Encourage the existing faculty who are not Ph. D holders to pursue Ph.D
- Initiate steps to introduce at least one Research Centre
- Canteen facility to be improved.
