ACADEMIC AUDIT

2017-2018

It is important for an educational institution to undergo regular assessment of its academic processes so as to understand whether it is capable of equipping students for the present-day challenges. Carmel College undertakes immense effort to evaluate academic performance as well as pedagogical practices. Academic Audit Report 2017-2018 gives an outline of all the scholastic methods followed and effectiveness of the new strategies incorporated in the previous year and it also puts forth some suggestions for certain areas which need improvement in the future.

Executive Summary

The Academic Audit of 2017-18 by the panel of external experts saw into the comprehensive evaluation of Self-Study Report submitted by each department. The dedication of the faculty in undertaking more student-centric initiatives has been appreciated by the panel. The team remarked positively on the multi-disciplinary programmes and outreach initiatives organized by departments. The suggestions by the panel of experts have been consolidated by the IQAC and are as follows:

- More national/international level paper presentations from faculty
- Encourage more research publications from faculty
- Proposals for UGC/KSHEC funded seminars and Minor/Major Research Projects are to be encouraged
- Rain Water Harvesting Project to overcome water scarcity during summer season
- Introduce renewable and sustainable solar panel projects in the college
- Efforts should be made to devise strategies to achieve zero fail results in UG and PG Examinations
- More field trips/ industrial visits/ study tours are to be arranged to inculcate research aptitude amongst students.

- Though there are several ongoing wellness activities in college, more attention to be given to the mental wellness of students and faculty so that they would not fall into depression as per the trend of the world.
- PO-s and CO-s should be well-defined and to be floated on college website
- More programmes related to research methodology should be organized
- More alumni engagement activities
- More innovative practices are to be implemented
